

the museum of nothingness

An abstract geometric composition featuring several overlapping, tilted planes in various shades of grey against a solid black background. The planes create a sense of depth and perspective. Several thin, white lines intersect the planes, some running parallel to the edges of the planes and others crossing them at different angles, adding to the geometric complexity.

NON-ENTITY.ORG

